

Child Behaviour Indicator

Healthy Child behaviour enables life-satisfaction of the children in long term, by positively influencing their lives at school, at home and in society. These can be identified through healthy emotions, conduct, activity, peer relations and prosocial behaviour.

Child Behaviour Indicators

Indicator	Details	Status
Emotions	Absence of worries, sadness, nervousness, fearfulness, physical symptoms related to emotions
Conduct	Absence of temper, bad behaviour, fighting or bullying, cheating or stealing
Activity	Absence of restlessness, fidgeting, distraction or Impulsive actions
Peer Relations	Making friends, Ability for adjustment with other children
Prosocial behaviour	Consideration for others, Sharing & Caring

Observation

--